

BIOGRAPHY

Franco Smith is a DJ and music producer from Buenos Aires, Argentina.

Their musical concept is totally focused on delivering an innovative, versatile and enveloping sound embraced by futuristic elements with the purpose of transmitting a unique experience for the track, achieving an energetic synergy between melodies, vocals and groove, as a result of an exponential growth in the electronic scene that is supported by the biggest references thanks to their creative mind.

At the age of 25 he is releasing music on the best techno labels worldwide such as 1605, Electric Ballroom, Kraftek, Unrilis, Legend and Set About to name a few, counting on the support of many renowned artists such as JosephCapriati, Enrico Sangiuliano, Space 92, Popof, Umek, among others.

As a DJ, Franco played in the best clubs of his country such as Crobar, The Bow, Groove, Under Club in Buenos Aires as well as in major venues of the country such as Wabi or El Auditorio Ángel Bustelo, and more, where he exposed his sound to massive audiences sharing booths with renowned artists such as Layton Giordani, Andres Campo, Joyhauser, Spektre, among others.

Positioning himself as one of the greatest talents today, he is performing all over the world touring Latin America Taking his music to countries such as Chile, Uruguay and Bolivia, to some epic venues such as El Salar de Uyuni, and also in Europe where he has performed at venues such as the Borussia Dortmund stadium in Germany, or the famous Mary Go Wild vinyl store in Amsterdam, Netherlands. His undisputed talent at a young age, propelled Franco's career with an exclusive projection all over the world.